9 次の英文は日本人女性初の宇宙飛行士である向井千秋さんについての文章です。文章を読み、後の問いに答えなさい。

Chiaki kept on ①( work ) for her dreams for a long time. She worked 14 years to be a doctor. She worked nine more years to be an astronaut. She believed in her dreams and never ②( forget ) them. She has some favorite words about life. She often tells ③them to other people, and she always tells them to herself.

If you can dream it, you can do it.

The words mean that if you have a goal, if you have a dream, then you can reach your goal and your dream can ④come true.

⑤( do / kind / have / you / what / of / dream )? What are you most interested in? Chiaki has a message for you, the people who will become leaders in the 21st century.

“Anyone can dream. Anyone can work hard to make his or her dreams come true. Working hard is not easy. Sometimes, you have to try hard for a long time ⑥( ア. ago イ. after ウ. before エ. though ) your dream comes true. However, I believe that if you work hard for your goal, you can reach it. If you never give up, you can realize your dream. I had a dream to become a doctor. I had a dream to become an astronaut. There are many wonderful things about being an astronaut. I think the best is meeting many different people. Before becoming an astronaut, I was a doctor. A doctor’s work is also interesting and I met a lot of different people when I worked in a hospital. After I became an astronaut, I met a lot more people. I met people from many different cultures and people who did many kinds of work. Our ※nationality, our culture, and our customs give us our thinking and our values. ⑦Different people have different ways of thinking and different values. I enjoy talking with people about our differences. I met a lot of people when I was working for my dreams and after my dreams came true. I look back at my past and I think about the things that I learned. I can never buy such experiences with money. They are my true treasures.

※nationality : 国民性
